Overall I have come to like this book. The images are mandala-like. The creator used original images from the book and repeated them in patterns for each coloring page. The pages are one sided. And the paper is thinner more like regular copy paper. I have been using colored pencils and have had good results. At first I wasn't sure about this book. But as I have been coloring in it I like it more and more with each picture I finish. I would recommend for wizard of oz fans. Just keep in mind there are wallpaper or mandala/kaliedoscope images jot full scenes.

Great, but I wouldn't recommend for crayon coloring. Colored pencils are the only way to go!

Bought as a gift and was so pleasantly surprised to see such detailed and beautiful pages to color.
Worth the money!

Going through a lot of these adult coloring books. Really like that the other side of the page is blank just in case your medium bleeds through.

The book wasn't what I expected at all it was misleading. I thought that it was a coloring book based on the classic movie. When it actually is based on the book by Frank Baum.

This is one cool coloring book and a must for any Wizard of Oz fan. Great shipping, packing and price.

pictures are a bit boring - not much going on
