Customer Reviews

I have been creating in glass for over 30 years, and Mr. Elder has pinpointed questions about stained glass and the cost of working in glass that each artist asks along the way. Mr. Elders writes with timely information and easily digested information whether one is a beginner, intermediate, or seasoned stained glass artist. Each chapter is filled with what you all ways have wanted to know. Thank you, Mr. Elder, this is a must have book for every stained glass artist.

This is a must have book if you love doing stained glass and enjoy making money while doing so. Mr. Elder presents many aspects of the process in a very precise way. I have enjoyed reading each chapter. I plan on adopting several of his suggestions. I hope he does more books in the near future.

Great book for ideas and tips. A must read to prepare for selling your projects. Very informative on various marketing avenues and pricing. Looking forward to Volumns II.

Really enjoyed Mr. Elders book. I found it very informative with lots of great info that will come in handy while working with my stained glass

Lot of good information
